OFFICIAL VOICE OF THE CONSTITUTION PARTY

Volume 3, Issue 2

Message from the Chairman:

Growth, the Howard Phillips Legacy Society, and the National Committee Meeting in Memphis, Tennessee

Already we are into the second month of the key 2014 election cycle and the Constitution Party continues to grow. The party continues to welcome pro-life advocates, home school families, disenfranchised Tea Party activists as well as other groups who we feel would make a “good fit” with the Constitution Party. And our efforts are beginning to pay off, especially during the past month. The ad below was seen by 175,920 people an average of 5.2 times...

America's only 100% Pro-Life political party! From conception to natural death...

A growing number of patriots are beginning to reach out to us for which we are grateful. These are people who have come to the realization that taking back control of the Republican Party is not going to happen and are looking for a new political home. For example, one such person is a businessman with a network of associates, both business and political. At his request we met and he told us he'd been following the progress of the CP for some time and that he had made the decision to join the party. He and many of his contacts are becoming actively involved building our party, including through generous investments. This positive trend will especially help us secure ballot access, which is vital to our growth.

Growth — financial, volunteer, and ballot access — comes from various sources, but key to reaching out is our monthly newsletter. In this current issue, I urge you read about the exciting new option of supporting the Constitution Party. The Howard Phillips Legacy Society is named after the party's founder and is the bedrock of the Constitution Party's Victory Fund. As Howard once said, "It's time to reject the politics of 'surrender on the installment plan' and offer the American people a vision of victory." Monthly donors to the party now receive an exclusive newsletter — THE VICTORY REPORT — and the current edition features an interview with New American magazine columnist and gun rights advocate Joe Wolverton. There are many other premiums for various levels of participation, including a one gram 999.9 pure silver ingot especially created for the Constitution Party.

The Howard Phillips Legacy Society:

THE CONSTITUTION PARTY VICTORY FUND

Howard Phillips, founder of the Constitution Party, often said: “To capture the Presidency for an agenda of Constitutional renewal, we need a political instrument with clarity of principle and unity of purpose...Your vote is wasted only when you give it to someone who is leading the country away from what you believe.”

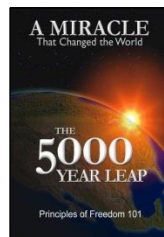

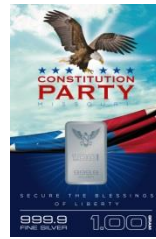

Howard’s vision was to build an alternative party based on the Founding Father’s timeless convictions. We have done that, and through sustaining donations, we continue to grow. Now, with the enthusiastic support of his widow, we are re-naming our pledge program The Howard Phillips Legacy Society.

There is a vital need for the Constitution Party because powerful and moneyed elites run Republican and Democratic parties. As George Wallace used to say, “There’s not a dime worth of difference between the Democrats and the Republicans.”

However, the Constitution Party is standing up against the establishment — offering principled, practical, and inspiring alternatives to politics-as-usual. To run the “business” end of the party, a fixed income is necessary to balance the books. Monthly and quarterly donations of $12, $20, and $30 have been the lifeblood of our day-to-day work.

This is an open invitation to join the Howard Phillips Legacy Society and become a special investor in The Constitution Party Victory Fund. Among the special premiums members are entitled to is our exclusive VICTORY REPORT. The inaugural issue featured an interview with Joe Wolverton, a Contributing Editor to The New American magazine, and a constitutional lawyer who is published widely because of his expertise in Second Amendment rights.

Your pledge of $12, $30, or even $30 a month or every three months will go a long way toward preserving our freedoms via a vibrant, determined, and more influential Constitution Party.

There are many other special incentives to join, a one gram 999.9 pure silver ingot especially created for the Constitution Party. It will be a valuable keepsake showing that you believe America must return to a constitutional monetary policy, as well as a unique reminder of your continuing support of the Constitution Party’s platform.

Members also have the opportunity to receive other premiums including the book, The 5000 Year Leap: A Miracle That Changed the World by W. Cleon Skousen. The New York Times calls Skousen “the constitutional guru of the Tea Party movement.”

Your membership in The Howard Phillips Legacy Society not only offers special premiums but is crucial as we continue to grow our party. A pledge of $30, $20, or just $12 honors the vision and courage Howard Phillips showed when he founded our party. Howard Phillips took to heart, and the Constitution Party has as its core, the wise admonition given by John Adams:

“There is nothing which I dread so much as a division of the republic into two great parties, each arranged under its leader, and concerting measures in opposition to each other. This, in my humble apprehension, is to be dreaded as the greatest political evil under our Constitution.”

The Howard Phillips Legacy Society follows his leadership and provides funding to empower his ideas and ideals. It is designed for patriots who have a commitment to the platform, candidates, and courageous political path we are taking.

IN SOUTH DAKOTA, FOCUS IS ON “POLITICAL DEADWOOD”

By Ken Lambert

Conservatives and Constitutionalists across the region will gather together in a key 2014 election year this summer, at the “South Dakota for Freedom: An Evening with Patriots” event, sponsored by the Constitution Party of South Dakota. Lori Stacey, state chairman, and Curtis Strong, candidate for Governor, have been heavily involved in the running of the state party, and will be among the speakers that night.

Other speakers and performers include: Jordan Page, Tatiana Moroz, and from the Tenth Amendment Center — Michael Boldin. The Constitution Party is planning for a record-breaking turnout. “We are trying to make an effort to reach out to Independents,” Lori Stacey stated, “Republicans and Libertarians are obviously an audience to reach out to as well.”

These words ring true all across the United States, as the Constitution Party aims to draw from all walks of life to elect true leaders who are dedicated to the preservation of the Constitutional Republic: people who are passionate about extracting the power out of Washington D.C. and placing it back in local and state governments. In an era where most surveys show the need for a viable third political party, there are plenty of issues for the Constitution Party candidates to focus on.

Stacey adds, “I have been trying to get the word out on the fact that Obamacare is null and void ever since the Supreme Court declared the penalty to be a tax. It originated in the Senate and that is (of course) forbidden for a revenue (tax) bill. It is basic rules of Congress to know which chamber can originate which types of bills.” She continues with a theme that is echoing across the nation. “We need local and state-wide officers – and members of Congress – to have the courage to hold government accountable when proposed bills violate the Constitution and their oath of office.

We must start holding them accountable or we have no Constitution realistically, no laws — just a government of men”.

Likewise, gubernatorial candidate Curtis Strong has a similar agenda and ideology. Strong states, “I started studying the Constitution a few years ago and am finding out how our elected officials discarded the Constitution. We were able to attend a Constitution class at the Independence Hall with Rick Green, which was an amazing experience”.

His political agenda is local, but aligns well with the national platform of the Constitution Party:

1. Common Core out of South Dakota.
2. Agenda 21 out of South Dakota. (Agenda 21 is a United Nations manifesto and protocol that mandates certain carbon footprint and emissions standards — at the expense of the economy.)
3. Aerial spraying no longer funded by any county or by the State of South Dakota.
4. All EB 5 (Immigrant Investor streamlined green cards & citizenship) projects stopped in the State of South Dakota.
5. Stop the Affordable Care Act in South Dakota.
6. Supply the people of South Dakota an itemized budget.
7. Constitutional Carry (no handgun restrictions) implemented in South Dakota

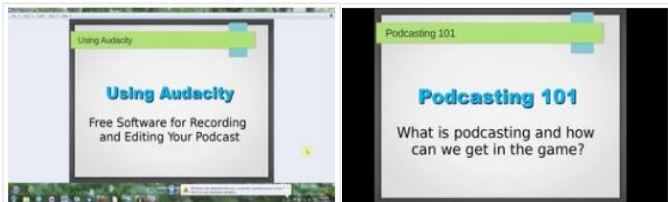

What does Lori Stacey think about the multitude of people that still feel they are “obligated” to vote Republican? “These voters are doing the wrong thing by voting for a Republican just because they are a Republican, and not choosing the best candidate for the office. The solution is simple. Stop being chained to the Republican candidates that most voters are not happy with anyway. Choose the best individual candidate for the office sought and quit throwing your vote away on a party. You do not elect a party, you elect an individual person. Voters should make sure a candidate really reflects the ideals and integrity they expect”.
